

Community Health Worker (CHW) Entry-Level Courses

These innovative courses are offered all over Oregon and equip individuals to think big-picture about improving the health of their region by considering each community member's unique health, cultural and social needs.

CHW: Poverty and Related Social Determinants of Health

This course is designed for Community Health Workers and will help individuals in their critical work with low-income populations.

CHW: Mental and Behavioral Health

In this course, you will cover mental illness and addiction, including the risk factors, behaviors and stigma often associated with these conditions.

CHW: Management of Chronic Health Conditions

This online self-paced course gives individual the essential training needed to address chronic health conditions such as obesity and chronic pain.

CHW Leadership Development Course

This online course is designed to provide a continuing education/professional development opportunity for Community Health Workers who wish to grow their capacity for leadership.

REGISTRATION OPEN NOW

Find out more at:
pace.oregonstate.edu/chw-programs

Oregon State University